

Directions to Westminster West Congregational Church, 44 Church Street, Westminster West, VT

- From Saxtons River, follow Westminster West Road south for 5.8 miles to the center of Westminster West, and go straight across the T intersection of Westminster West Road with West Road – going up the hill on Church Street to the white church. Parking is both left and right of the narrow street near the church.
- From the center of Putney village, follow Kimball Hill/Westminster Road for 6.9 miles to the center of Westminster West. At the intersection, where Westminster West Road comes in on the right, turn hard left onto Church Street and go up the hill to the white church. Parking is both left and right of the narrow road near the church.
- From the east end of Route 5 in Westminster Center, take School Street to its end in a T intersection. Turn left onto Kurn Hattin Road/Patch Road and follow the paved road over the ridge to the end of Patch Road at its junction with the Westminster West Road. Bear right onto Westminster West Road, and go about one mile to the small village. At the intersection of four roads, make a sharp turn back to the left and up the small hill to the white church.
